Your Club Needs Your Help

It is the start of a new year and it is time to start organizing our years events. We have already started planning this years competition and have three new volunteers helping with that. I would like to thank Greg Venditto, Justin Taylor and Brett Lavin for volunteering.

We still need many more volunteers. As I mentioned at the last meeting we need someone to volunteer to edit the newsletter. I am covering it this month, but if there is no volunteer you can consider this the last newsletter we will publish. We also need people to organize the picnic this year, preferably several people. One to organize the food, another for the drink, and someone for the games and raffle. We also need people to act as organizer for each of our brewing events (Big Brew, Teach A Friend, Mead Day etc...). We also need someone to organize the Anniversary party.

Please step up. To volunteer just Speak with Jim Taylor, Charlie Haight, Al Alexsa or Dave Sherfey. You can

January 9th Meeting: Guest Speaker from Tuthilltown Spirits

The Tuthilltown Gristmill is the oldest continuously operated water powered gristmill in New York State and is listed on the National Register of Historic Places. In 2005 Ralph Erenzo and Brian Lee started Tuthilltown Spirits in the old gristmill granary. Tuthilltown Spirits in Gardiner, New York is the first distillery producing hand made vodkas and whiskey in the State since the repeal of Prohibition. Their spirits are made from New York agricultural products. Unlike most vodkas, at Tuthilltown they distill their spirits from scratch right at the distillery making use of the local original materials such as whole fresh apples, New York corn and local wine grapes.

Mr Erenzo originally bought the mill with the thought of making it in to a camping area for climbers coming to scale the Shawangunk Ridge, but faced several obstacles and eventually had to abandon that mission. While trying to figure out a way to put the old gristmill and the farm back to work Mr. Erenzo partnered up with Mr. Lee and they decided to start the distillery.

Mr. Erenzo and possibly Mr. Lee, will be our guest speakers at the January meeting. They will discuss the journey they took to get to the first batch and discuss some of the different distilling projects they have done.

If you would like more info about Tuthilltown, visit their website at <http://www.tuthilltown.com/index.php>

I hope you can all attend. I think this will be very

Homebrew Alley Competition

SUNDAY FEBRUARY 10, 2008

The New York City Homebrewers Guild is proud to announce its Second Annual

Homebrew Alley Competition.

We will need Judges and Stewards, so please come and enjoy a day of judging, good food and awards.

It will again be held at Chelsea Brewing Company - 59 Chelsea Piers Ste 62 Cold breakfast and hot coffee will be provided as well as lunch from Chelsea Brewing Co.. Sign up begins at 9:30 AM.

Last years inaugural HOMEBREW ALLEY contest was a learning experience for us, rest assured this year every effort has been made to move the event along more rapidly than last year. We will hold a raffle, during the awards ceremony, as well as have you leave with a " thanks for your participation" gift.

We also welcome as many beer entries as you can provide. The Grand Prize, to be announced, will be a rather large homebrew gift certificate. Additionally a special " Brewers Choice Award" will be chosen from the Best of Show beers by Chelsea brewmaster Chris Sheehan.

Please email your positive RSVP to aleliberty@nyc.rr.com. Questions can also be directed to that email address.

This, as you would expect, is a AHA and BJCP sanctioned event.
Thank you for your interest.

The 2008 New York HOTY Season has Started

The 2008 HOTY competition season has started. The final HB competition to be included will be the 2008 NYS Fair HB competition. Winners will be announced each year at the New York State Fair in conjunction with the Fair's homebrew award ceremony.

The results for the NYS Homebrewer of the Year award are calculated from the results of member competitions. The formula used remains consistent for a season. Any changes take effect the following season. The results are calculated using the number of entries in a category and your place in that category. This weights the score according to a difficulty level. It is more difficult to place in a large category than a small one. Likewise the Best of Show winners are scored on the total number of entries in the competition. BOS is adjusted so that it is significant but not disproportional to the regular categories. If individual categories are collapsed to include more than one style, the combined styles are treated as one and awarded the same point values.

We rely on the competitions to report the results to NYSHOTY with the required information. It is important that each brewer check the individual competitions results for accuracy. It is also important to check the posted NYSHOTY results. Please check your results within two weeks of the posting to report any discrepancies. You can sign up for notifications using the form on the left side of the site.

For each entrant, these weighted points will be added up through the year-long competition.

To see the scheduling for the remaining competitions and to see the current results visit the NYS SHOTY website at www.nyshoty.org

2008 Boston Homebrew Competition Call for Judges

The Boston Wort Processors and I are pleased to announce that the 2008

Boston Homebrew Competition will be held in Boston on March 1st, 2008. I would like to invite all judges and stewards to join us in the 13th year of this fine beer competition. Homebrewing is seeing resurgence right now and from what I have seen, the quality of beer is pretty good and the competition is heating up. Your participation in this competition is Necessary for us to be able to provide the brewers with the type of feedback that is essential to making great beer in all the world class beer styles. This is a BJCP sanctioned competition, MCAB qualifying event and part of the New England Homebrewer of the Year series.

This years judge coordinator is Mark Irwin.

Judge/Steward information is at www.wort.org/bhc/judgeinfo.shtml. Judge registration is easy, just go to www.wort.org/bhc/judgereg.shtml and sign up. We'll send you confirmation and will follow up with directions and information for the day of the judging. There will be some nice gifts for all judges participating in this years competition. Lunch will also be provided.

Please pass the word onto fellow judges as well as fellow brewers. All the information you need for entries is at www.wort.org/bhc/index.shtml. I do apologize if you received this email more then once, I was working off from several different mailing lists.

I look forward to seeing old faces as well as lots of new faces there.

Thanks for your dedication.

Cheers,

When Are Your Dues Due???

A common complaint since we did away with the paper newsletter is that people don't pay their dues because they don't know when they are due anymore. Below is a list of the club membership and their anniversary date in 2008. This is not an indication of paid or not paid, only a reminder of which month the dues are due. If your dues are due this month and you have paid them I thank you. If they are due and you have not paid them please see Charlie, Gloria, Al Alexa or John Rudy or you can mail them to:
